Print Maker Workshop W18/19

Workshop Description

An Artist book is an artwork that is inspired by the form or function of a book.

Ideally suited for beginners, this workshop will show artists how to recycle their rejected paintings, drawings, and prints on paper into beautiful artist's books.

Basic techniques and tips for folding, creasing, cutting and gluing paper, board and ribbon are learnt.

Outcomes include:

1. Inspirational examples of artists books will be shown and templates for several books will be provided
2. Tips and limits for deciding what form of book best suits your imagery and paper will be outlined
3. The fundamentals of paper grain, measuring, folding, creasing, cutting and pasting paper and board will be taught
4. Participants will create several artist's books including concertina and snake book forms
5. At least two types of book covers with ties will be taught
6. Created works will be reviewed and references for further research will be provided

Payment Due: 6 Oct 2018
